Concisely summarize this month's activities.:

The month of April was very rewarding in our newest community Country Club Acres, located in an unincorporated area of Delray Beach. During the morning and afternoon hours we conducted door to door community surveys, as well as creating an opportunity to build personal relationships with members and leaders of this community.

Although the neighborhood home owners association is voluntary, there appears to be a good core group of people attending monthly meetings.

One of our goals was to introduce board members and residents to guest speakers whom they can connect with by asking questions regarding various concerns or issues. Some of these speakers included, representatives from the Office of Community Revitalization (OCR), Palm Beach Sheriff's Office (PBSO) and County Code Enforcement. As a result this has already opened doors to the community.

Additionally , we have addressed other issues in the community as we encounter concerns from residents during our visits, such as indoor air quality (mold/mildew), outdoor air pollution (vehicle spray painting, truck idling) and septic tank systems.

Overall, a rewarding month for the community and its residents.

Thanks to Jaime Morales and Julia Holtzhausen for their hard work on this project.
